

Motion:

Since the Faculty Senate's vote of no confidence last September, President Sloan has made only limited and inadequate attempts to address the problems that face Baylor University. The Faculty Senate believes the President has failed to lead the university forward and has failed to restore a climate of trust. Therefore, the Faculty Senate reaffirms its vote of no confidence in President Sloan.

Motion Passed (28 For; 5 Against).

May 4, 2004